The following penalties may be assessed for any such conduct occurring at any NKYFL game or function, or any conduct that in any way effects the overall reputation, spirit, and best interests of all participants in the NKYFL. Any such penalties:

- Will only be assessed following an official written complaint to the NKYFL league president, specifying the allegations and requesting action.

- Will be specific to the various participants, as follows:

PARENTS

1. Any parent may be prohibited from attending any number of future NKYFL games.
2. The organization may be held accountable and fined up to $500 for the parent's conduct if it is determined that the organization (or representatives of that organization) either condoned or encouraged such conduct.
3. No penalty shall be levied against any other participant for a parent's conduct.

PLAYERS

1. Any player who is ejected from a NKYFL game is automatically suspended for their next scheduled league game, to include playoff games, Super Bowl and All-Star games. This penalty will carry over from season to season.
2. Any player who is ejected from two (2) games in any given season is automatically suspended for the remainder of that season including any playoff games, Super Bowl and All-Star games.

COACHES

1. Any coach who is ejected from a NKYFL game is automatically suspended for their next game to include playoff games and Super Bowl games. This penalty will carry over from season to season.

3. Any coach may be suspended from attending any number of future League Meetings. The number of meetings will be determined by the Head Directors and will be based on the severity of the infraction.
4. The organization may be held accountable and fined up to $500 for the coach's conduct if it is determined that the organization (or representatives of that organization) either tolerated or encouraged such conduct.

Any attempt to use it as a vehicle for any other purpose will be considered a gross violation of the policy and will be dealt with severely. Any complaint that is filed that is considered to be frivolous or not in the spirit of the policy can and will generate disciplinary action as outlined above.
