KEYSTONE VOLLEYBALL CLUB Volleyball Rules:
All KEYSTONE VOLLEYBALL CLUB volleyball players will observe the following guidelines and rules.

1. GENERAL
   A. GYM: Players need to understand that we are a guest in the gyms and that any actions in the gym reflect the player, team and the KVC. There will be no horseplay, foul language or any inappropriate behavior in any gym while participating in any club activity.
   B. Respect: We demand that players/coaches/parents treat everyone involved with our club with the utmost respect in their actions and words. Further, we will not tolerate un-sportsmanlike conduct of any kind with others teams players, fans, coaches or the officials. We also expect the players to treat all coaches with due respect and coaches show the same respect to their players.
   C. Illegal activities: The club has a zero tolerance when it comes to any illegal activities by its members. Smoking is considered illegal by minors under the age of 21 in the state of Pennsylvania. KVC Juniors will dismiss any member caught smoking, involved with any drugs, drinking or involved in any illegal activities.
   D. School: Education should always be the highest priority in the child life. We understand that school should come first. If the child is having difficulty in school then that matter should be addressed first and foremost.
   E. Activities: We understand that there are emergencies that will arise, family activities etc. While we understand and encourage these activities it is also understood that you committed yourself to the team. While we will take each instant by a “case by case” basis. It is important that your commitment to the team is taken seriously. Continued missing of practice will not be tolerated and each team will address the problem with the player including dismissal from the team.

2. PRACTICES
   A. Punctuality: All athletes need to be fully dressed and ready to workout at the assigned start time.
   B. Tardiness: The player is excused from arriving late if tardiness is due to a school-related. In the event that this occurs, the player must notify her coach prior to practice and the coach may request a note from school personnel.
   C. Un-excused Tardiness: Coaches decision may include running laps etc.

3. ABSENCES – PRACTICES/GAMES
   A. Absence Notification – Player must call the coach and inform them of the absence PRIOR to their practice date.
   B. The player is excused if Absence is due to a school-related function. In the event that this occurs, the player must notify her coach prior to practice and the coach may request a note from school personnel.
   C. Player is required to sit out one game for each practice missed.
   D. Practices missed without prior notification will result in sitting out an entire match.
   E. Player is allowed two (2) missed practices for the 06/07 season with prior Notification to coach without penalty. Missed practice must be due to a significant event or extreme illness and they must have a signed note explaining the miss.

4. TOURNAMENTS
Games/Matches are a great way to determine where you stand as a team against your pears. All matches/games need to be taken seriously. Once the player’s steps on the court we expect that player to have their game face on. Players who are not taking the match’s seriously, paying attention whether playing or sitting out will be warned then asked to leave the playing area for the remainder of the tournament.
   A. Players that are late to a tournament will be disciplined at coach’s discretion.
   B. Players must check with their coach before leaving the gym.
   C. All players are required to stay as a team until they finish working the last game.

5. CHAIN OF COMMAND
The following steps should be followed when any problem arises with the player and the coach.
   1. The athlete talks to the immediate coach of the team.
   2. The athlete and parent talk to the immediate coach of the team.
   3. The athlete, parents, immediate coach and the director will meet.

Parents wishing to speak to a coach about their athlete must set up an appointment. No conference will take place after a game or practice. No walk-ups! Remember it is best to have the child address any questions to the coach. But if you have questions be cordial, don’t be confrontational and be prepared for FRANK answers.
