The Mid Season Grind

The Bradley Jaguar Basketball team is in the midst of 5 road games in a 9 day stretch to kick off 2018. The Jags have bounced back in a big way from their loss to the Hilliard Davidson Wildcats. They kicked it off with a 51 to 43 victory over the Delaware Hayes Pacers. Once again the Jags were led by Sophomore sensation Matt Al-locco who dumped in 13 points. The Bradley boys had a quick turn around as they traveled to Pickerington North for their second showcase of the year at "The Challenge" where they competed against one of the power houses in the Columbus city league, Columbus Northland. The Jags were victorious over the Vikings with a score of 60 to 40. Senior Isaiah Speelman had a game high 25 points. The Jags will end their road game stretch with a league game against Hilliard Darby, before entering their third showcase game at Flying to the Hoop Challenge in Dayton, OH on January 13th. The Jags will face Spire Academy from Geneva, OH

Jags at the Middle School

Both of our middle school teams have been working hard this season and continuing to climb the mountain. Our 8th grade team is sitting at 6-4 and continues to grind and improve each and every day. Our 7th grade team is currently 7-3 and really trusting the process, as well as one another, and looks to take that momentum into tournament. The 8th grade tournament is held at Hilliard Weaver and the 7th grade tournament will be held at Dublin Karrer.

Quote of the Day

“Basketball is a game of habits. If you make the other guy deviate from his habits, you’ve got him. That’s where scouting wins.”

HOW TO TELL A WINNER FROM A LOSER

1. When a winner makes a mistake, they take responsibility. A loser blames their teammates.
2. A winner works hard when know one is watching. A loser slacks off when the coach has his/her back turned.
3. A winner hates to lose; a loser could care less although they put up a good front.
4. A winner takes constructive criticism from the coach, realizing that it will help her and the team. A loser thinks they are being picked on and pouts.
5. A winner thinks of the team first and never wants to let the team down; a loser thinks of themselves first and the team last.
6. A winner thinks, “I am good, but not as good as I could be.” A loser thinks, “I’m not as bad as some of the others.
7. Winners make commitments and set goals with their hearts and then sets out to accomplish them; a loser makes “promises” with their mouths but never sincerely intends to keep them.
8. Winners do all the dirty jobs: rebound, set screens, dive for loose balls, take charges; losers only worry about how many points they scored.
9. A winner would rather have their team win a State Championship; a loser would rather be All-State.
